HARASSMENT

Homesdale believes that as an organisation it should be free from harassment. Homesdale has developed comprehensive procedures to deal with harassment. These procedures ensure prompt and supportive response from staff.

We undertake to

- Ensure the workplace is free from discrimination or harassment. Promote respect within the workplace.
- Ensure the tenants and staff are aware issues of harassment and of Homesdale's stance on harassment, and the measures that will be taken against perpetrators of harassment.
- Monitor incidents of harassment, and the action taken.
- Support staff and tenants who are being bullied, harassed or victimised.
- Regularly review policies that address harassment, bullying and intimidation, including policies that link to these issues. These include Harassment at Work, POVA, Whistleblowing, Safety of Staff and Lone Working.

ANTI DISCRIMINATORY PRACTISE

Homesdale will not discriminate against any individual, or have policies which operate in that a way that could be indirectly discriminatory.

This includes

Racism

Homesdale will not discriminate against any person because of their racial origin. Homesdale will ensure that all have equal access to housing, and are involved in the Homesdale community.

Gender

Homesdale will ensure that both genders have equal access to housing and the housing service. Appropriate measures will be taken to inappropriate behaviour or comments. Homesdale will provide security for female tenants & staff.

Sexual Orientation

No staff member, applicant or tenant will be placed at a disadvantage because of their sexuality. Homesdale will ensure that different lifestyles are treated with respect, and that harassment policies are implemented.

Disability

Homesdale recognises that disabled individuals have different housing needs, and will endeavour to provide suitable housing if possible. Homesdale will ensure all communal areas are accessible for disabled individuals, and provide reasonable adaptations to property as seen fit. Homesdale will consider all applicants with a disability for a job vacancy and will consider them on the basis of ability. Homesdale will ensure staff have the required level of disability awareness.

Age

A person under the age limit as detailed in the eligibility criteria cannot be given a tenancy, but aside from this Homesdale will not treat anybody less favourably because of their age. Homesdale will review regularly all recruitment procedures to ensure there are no hidden age barriers.

HIV Status

Homesdale will not tolerate harassment of any person because of their HIV status. Homesdale will seek to inform and educate where necessary. Homesdale seeks to create an atmosphere where individuals can disclose their status without fear.

Religious Beliefs

Homesdale is a Christian organisation, but does not discriminate against other beliefs in either employment or access to housing. Homesdale will ensure that all individuals can feel part of the community regardless of their religious beliefs. Homesdale recognises the individuals' right to their religious beliefs and aims to promote good relations between all members of its community.
